

For businesses and organisations requiring independent executive support

What do we offer?

Access to over 300 independent turnaround and restructuring professionals from our Executive Solutions member database

Candidates able to take a range of finance, executive management and board level appointments, bringing values to businesses operating anywhere across the business life cycle, in periods of growth or contraction

Short-notice interim appointments contracted directly between you and the Executive Solutions member at rates you agree with them. No fees or commissions are paid to/or received by KPMG

We recognise that in certain situations, engaging a restructuring team from any professional services practice, may not be the best fit for your particular needs – a “sledgehammer to crack a nut” is never an optimal scenario. However, being able to quickly source high calibre individuals with restructuring skill sets to stabilise a situation in an interim capacity could be exactly what you need.

Whether replacing an executive at short notice whilst a longer term solution is sourced, or supplementing an existing board or management team whilst working through a period of adversity, KPMG Restructuring can still be your ‘go to’ solution provider. With Executive Solutions you’ll get hand-picked CV options from a large specialist network to consider and take forward at your discretion with no fees or obligations to us.

This pro-bono service is part of our commitment to a full spectrum service offered within KPMG Restructuring. Joining our network will enable you to engage with members directly on commercial terms you agree with them.
