

For stakeholders of businesses requiring independent executive support

At KPMG Restructuring our role in supporting stakeholders to businesses and other organisations facing difficulty is long established and at the heart of everything we do. The scale, strength and depth of the KPMG organisation is what makes us excel in our market, and our Executive Solutions network is yet another high quality KPMG option available to you.

We recognise that the social and business landscape is evolving rapidly and that stakeholder interventions made by deploying a Restructuring team, may not be appropriate in some cases. A more subtle intervention may be a more constructive first step.

Whilst many of you in the debt and equity market will be familiar with some individuals in the independent restructuring community it is not feasible for you to always have the best contact in your address book to reach out to for particular situations.

We want to make sure that you, as an important part of our client base, always have access to the best practitioners in the market.

We have formed a dedicated team led by an experienced Restructuring Director to provide you with a single point of contact and have invested in a secure online portal in which our network members log their credentials, specialisms and changing roles.

If you tell us what you can about your particular scenario we can use this information to match your requirements to appropriate individuals with availability in our network and will provide a handful of options for you to consider.

We have no contractual arrangements with our network members and receive no remuneration for referring them to you. They also have no obligation to us for being referred to opportunities with organisations like yours.

To discuss options for your current scenario please get in touch with the Executive Solutions team, Emma Liston or Teresa Millward directly at KPMGExecutiveSolutions@KPMG.co.uk or reach out to your usual KPMG contact who can connect you with the team.
